My dear brother, Zvi!
You can't imagine how pleased I was with your letter. Especially since you had not written for a comparatively long time. I understand you must have been very busy, but please do not let it happen again. I was really very worried. Congratulations for the way you passed your mother. I am really very proud of you. I hope you'll like your work at the poultry-house. Auntie Anne Hinde is not for Uncle Bob about you having given a speech in the Kibbutz at some occasion. She was praising you very much, and we were all very pleased about it. Why don't you ever write about these details? Nothing would interest me more. Everything is going all right with us. Sara, Chaim and Ruthy came to stay with us for the Christmas

Last week-end. It was really very nice. We enjoyed it immensely. Ruthy is ever so lovely, and a very good child too. Leo took some snaps of her. Sara is going to send you some. She'll be a year next week. It was 2 years yesterday Sara got married. Time does fly. If only our dear Mother it would know about this, and how well we all are & she would be so happy. It's so should look after her, and keep her safe for us. Let us hope for the best. — Ester has holiday from school for a couple of weeks, so she went to London to stay with Sara. She is having a very nice time. Tully is all right too. I do not see very much of him and he is not too keen on writing letters. So we just must occasionally, when I go up to
