

Nov. 25th 1945.

Dearest Zari Ann,

It has been quite a while since I last wrote to you, but there's not been much to write about. Uncle Bob sent $25.00 off to you, I suppose you have received the money by now. - I spent last week - and with Uncle, another 2 the children it made a nice change for me and we all had lots of fun. Harold is 9 years old to-day. - He is having a party to celebrate! and not go up to London to-day, though I usually do on Sundays, but I have some work to do and also catch up with my correspondence. Your letters usually go round to all the members of the family; and they all enjoy reading them. Uncle Bob especially commented on the way you write. So mean to well and make your letters as interesting. - Please about money about Tully - Believe me he is quite all right. I had not seen him for just weeks when I accidentally ran in to him last Monday in Providence Circus, just as I was going to meet Auntie Reena in time to go and see a play. (It was "Loopy Lindermere Farm" by Oscar Wilde) He was just on his way to Bruce Goffe with a friend. - He had changed his looking (a thing he often does) and is now retaining in diameter cutting & polishing again. - I keep on telling him to write to you, but he is somewhat reticent, so he persists. - I was at Grohmanns this eve. For the time being they are going to stay here in St. Simons, the 3 girls are lovely. - Duke Sam is living with them for the moment. The young couple looks + Rachel are as fresh up happy even very soon, I think January, and our Sam is also expecting 2 baby about the same time. Dr. - I am sorry for Ruthy. - I suppose you know all that, anyway. For you & ?

Beene keep on advising you letters to save, I'm hoping to meet to London in a few weeks and I'm not sure about my abilities yet.

According to reports here, drinks brakes in Palestine have ceased. - yet in hope for good this time. - Although of course! our people can not be allowed for not accepting the warabi factory Horus Sira F. us, makes the circumstances But able, we must not give up hope. - I wonder when we will ever be able to see each other again, when I think kinds of home and all of us being together, it seems like part of an other world, and some times just like a dream. I did not appreciate it then. We took too much for granted, and now I often reproach myself for having been disappointed with little things, even then. - But enough of that, we must look the future in the face boldly. I may be, and be thankful for simple pleasures. - Please dear Henshi, write soon, about yourself, your studies e. c. t. Best regards to all, yours in the act of love. Fay. XXX.
