I am sorry that I did not write to you all the time but it is my position my part - I would not give your letters, and I am informed about your it I am very pleased!

That you get on well with your study, and I am sure that you will be successful

I am getting on very well with my Diamond job in England, and I am only just to know the trouble in my hand and I intend to go into the Diamond - business later - soon and

London are opening a factory making Toys and other small wood articles. As I was in the paper about abolition in Palestine, I am hoping that you look after yourself and about pit your self in danger. Is it possible for you to procure a Poles -

Timber subject & if it is it would be desirable to be so. With kindest regards and and from me, I wish here!

or lady girl and the family is very happy. Hoping to hear from you soon, and wishing you all the best

Sincerely

Dearest Ann!

Just a few lines from me this time, I'm in a hurry to go this letter off to you. Your last letter was rather upsetting, although I may say we are quite well informed here about the very facts you printed out; though of course the papers here as you know are not exactly truthful about it. But nice people from here are always to hint Palestine, he got good reports on the situation.

 He's very already mentions, we are rather anxious about you, so please, look after yourself for us. - Give my kindest regards to Auntie. We were all very pleasantly surprised. - The names of Rachel & Isobel's daughters is Miriam, a lovely baby. - Hoping to hear from you very soon. Love Fred
