

Dearest Zim Cor.

17th June 46.

For days I have been wanting to write to you, to answer your letter which got here about a month ago, but time just seems to fly by and always something or the other and my intentions. —

I guess you must be working very hard just now before you take your final exams when the number term comes to an end. What is the number of students likely to be accepted to take "Physics" as a main subject, as against the number going in for it? At any rate, knowing you, I'm sure you stand a pretty good chance. — Good luck. —

Now, regarding the message you wanted me to pass on, she following, I'm afraid rather unhelpfully as to be the answer; Nandy; Beel; does not see himself in a position to give money from his own for a purpose such as this, he is already working about anti-finances financial assistance, and she reserves Palestine and will consider it for more important to help her. — I think, if it is a case of crossing between the stars we can sympathize with this view. However, would there be we have wrote a very long letter to Auntie Fithel giving her opinion, & also explaining various details, so there is not need for me to enlarge on the matter. — Also he thinks, and rightly, that since it was Auntie El. Thine's's own species will that you should get £100 for paying £12 for her, that this should be extended to you ~~then~~ by selling some of her belongings and exchanging them for money. — In a letter in which Auntie Fithel writes about all the things & our happy event, she asked Uncle Beel for a sum of £250, this being all the money we had had to lay out, for expenses etc. — Although the share with my purpose to have been for another £1,000,000's was long extended according to rule, he nevertheless had those £250 of straight away.

 A sum for which he was quite unprepared, and which happened to make matters worse, as far as the interest fund was concerned.
 I suppose it is difficult for you to know how to put it to your own lawyer, or you can leave it to another letter. — You know best. — All this is supposed to write about, but there it is. — Try and drop me a few lines, dear, whenever you are. All is well with us here. I have truly to-day, he sends his love to you.
 He will write. — I have a nice part-time job in an office, will write more about it next time. — Keep well always, your father.
