Dear Zwi 'Cor
Forgive me for not having written to you all that time. I ought to be ashamed of myself. But really there is such a lot to do now with 'Baby' and the weeks and months just seem to fly away. Don't be angry with me, I promise I shall write to you more often now. I always read the letters you write to Fay's and we are very glad to hear that you are happy there and we are wishing you all the best for your future. How about your niece, Stella Pari? Ruth is so getting on fine she looks very much like Chaim's, and unusually very sweet. She brought cows and chickens now and we can see her improving day to day. She also is sitting up already. We will send you a photo of her as soon as we have one. Did you receive the letter I wrote to you just after our marriage? With the photo of the wedding from us? I hope you will send us a photo of you, we can hardly wait to see it. We hope you had some information from our dearest mother's, we did not have any since Dec. 1941. Yet our littlest hope we shall soon have good news from her. Our hope mother's is sweet and healthy. Chaim's sends his best regards and wishes to you. He is working now in an aircraft factory and I will write you more about his work next time. Give regards to water and uncle, hope you have forgiven me, and that you will answer us soon.
Love from Chaim, Sara and Ruthy.
