My dear brother Ev!

Last week I received your typed letter from 21. OCT. I have told the others to write to you, and they promised to do so. Sara is very busy with her fled and a husband to look after, and as you probably know with preparations for the baby, with it all being well she is expecting to come along in January. (Won't you feel important being an uncle?). Tully is getting on well and making quite a lot of money. Ester is working hard in school. What would't we give to have our dear mother with us, but unfortunately there is nothing we can do about it just now except hope for the best. All the others are it keeping well. Write soon again, I will as well. Regards to everybody. Love Fay.
