My dear Zvi Gav!

By now you will have got the 4 paged airmail I sent off to you some weeks ago. Will you please let us know, what you did about getting the airmail letter about it a.c.t. I hope they did not take it too badly. - I suppose you received the £2-0-0 I sent off to you from Tully as a present. - I am now in London at Sara's place. I am having a water holiday and I am spending it here. Little Betty is really lovely. I wish you could see her, you would be proud of your little niece. I hope you got the letters from Mafek & Ester with you. How do you like it in the new house? Please tell me all about your work. Since, as I hope this letter will reach you shortly before you go, I take this opportunity to wish you a happy & successful year and all the best for the future. May it be kept. This war should be over, and we should all be together with our dear mother Gav, in freedom. Give my love and best wishes to the aunts and uncle. Write soon. Yours with love,
Dear Zvi Gav! I received your letter thank you very much. Will write to you next week. Wishing you all the best, and the same from Chaim's & Betty's. Give our regards to the relations Love Sara.
