

Dec. 25th 1944

Dear Zvi G.!

Your last letter caused a long time coming. But it was not worth waiting for.

For once I seem to have some idea of the situation you are placed in. Financially as well as otherwise.

No doubt, things are living generally are much more expensive in Palestine than here. You figures show that plainly. I do hope you don't have to work very hard to earn the money you do. It is a good job you like teaching if you are actually doing it. One gets more pleasure out of work one likes it do. I am afraid there is more than I can pay for the job I am doing now. But one has not much to choose from here in Palestine, when one has to do Government jobs. Although I do not maintain myself I think

I do prefer engineering to joining the army. At least the evenings and week-ends are nice. - News, it is not so wonderful there days. The farmers still seem to make progress in Belgium. But let's hope these are their last years of change and it will not be long before they will have to give way to greater powers. -

I shall give your address to the others I hope they will write to you.

For lessons I think, on their part. We are having 4 days X-mas holiday in our factory, and ETI has also a few weeks off from school, so we planned to go to London to stay with Jane.

John arranged to meet Dudley for a day. But, Ben Remick doesn't meet It's best. E.T. got the medals and everything is off. Thank God! He is much better now.

But I had a rough time with her. She will have to stay in bed or other weeks. So we are isolated the you now living with a friend or alone? Do you live with a family? Where are our dear mother's brothers kept? —

Oh, I wish I could pack my things and go to Palestine! My boy - he I will be able to, one day.
At least for a visit. Who knows?
Frank will probably get married in February. No sense in worrying since he has made up his mind.
Congratulations to you birth day. I am a bit late I hope you'll forgive me.
Please write soon and a lot. I am sorry if this letter is a bit confusing, but I wish I had just more of love for you.
