Dear Zwi

I really have no excuse for not having written to you all that time. I read all the letters you wrote. I have got a flat with Herbert Kasser. I am sure you remember him. I have been living with him for 6 months already. He is a buyer for ladies Gowns and Costumes. I have done a lot of different jobs already and work in quite a few Workshops and Factories. I learnt Diamond polishing for ten months, now I am trying to get in a Radio or Television Shop. I like it here in London very much. I wish I like it here best for your matriculation. In all the
