By ones Ben: To r!

Thanks for your long letter of Mon. 2nd. - It was changed to the point, because this 'im' spent in going to be rather next, I est when Ben see your letter & he said the following: From the jewelry, spent from grandfather that we had about £500 all in all, we each got a £100. - Tilly was had his & spent it. - I have spent mine (nearly all of it) when I was young to college. Sam & Est. each got a piece of jewelry. - You have had most of yours! think (please if you remember exactly how much Est had Runs then I can tell where Rose & you note get the rest to make up a £100. - Now as regards to what was left from grandfather Ben had the following for you. (But before I say this, I want to emphasize that we definitely agree with your plan if you can save time that way, it would be silly to waste time for you and I am great white lines. Papa can say it out for you in the meantime, so what ever you are, don't change your mind about that.) He can't give me any numbers of how much there is. - It all depends whether Aunt more. Also he said, discussion how your stomach and he does not know what price he can get now. - The family here (papa - Grah) are also exhibiting to some of things I think they now want it, or at any rate should not get it. However, he told me before he Congratulations

can find me a definite answer he would very much like to write to Mrs. (Glad about it. He was surprised to hear that she had moved and left with the him and he asked me to ask her to let him know her address as soon as possible so he can write to her. If you like here is Uncle Sam's address and you could write straight to him for a change I think he would appreciate it in the least.
