Pec Uncle Fritz, she come to Hermann on business? -

I've now started to work full-time at my office & extra at a lot. 5 days a week, from 9:30 - 6. No school. -

Have arranged to visit Naples for lunch to-morrow, we sometimes do that. - Should get him to drop you a few lines.
He would very much like to get out of this country, but all his attempts have been fruitless so far, so he is in rather a disappointed mood these days.
Thanks for your wishes, except wine, for a happy & prosperous New Year, well over the top, & all the very best, always. Fred. -

My dear Zvi Tor

Yes, it would be difficult for you to return to your little room in town: after having spent such a nice holiday in so wonderful a place. Your description of Haifa was very picturesque, and reading it, it was, as though I myself could see it. —

By now, I suppose, you are packed up in your studio once again. —

It is Sunday morning now, and the weather is lovely (that very rarely happens). I've just been on the plane to Lima. Shimon bought a nice car last week, and to-day, for the first time he is going to take her the children & eat out in in for a pic-nic. — They are all very thrilled. — That reminds me, I've asked me to let you know, I've made a letter to you, about three weeks ago, enclosin' up a photo of the children. It was addressed to your Haifa holiday address and should have gone by airmail, but was by mistake sent off by ordinary mail. — Have they got your Jerusalem address there? If not, you better communicate with them. — I don't know if you got it all right.

You mentioned in one of your letters about Swick having been demitted. We did not know about that. —

(Uncle Zvi writes very often, & in return he very seldom gets post from Auntie F. H. —) What is the thing? How are the chances of his
